“ My dear brother, how I will miss you! Every time I think of you, my heart fills with warm fuzzies because that was the atmosphere you created with everyone who surrounded you—your funny stories, your protectiveness, your dedication. There is now a hole where once you resided.

“ Neal was a dear and kind man with a warm smile and gentle sense of humor that would light up the room. We remember him fondly.
May your hearts and minds be filed with happy memories of the life and love you shared with Neal. I'm pretty sure that he was awarded a gold plated tool chest and a fishing rod that catches the biggest fish with every cast when he entered the gates of heaven.
We are staying confined during the virus outbreak but saying prayers of strength for each of you.
