“ My most sincere sympathies go out to Tim, Tina and their family. . . I was so sorry to hear of Tim’s passing. I have known Tim and Tina for quite a few years through work and always thought of Tim as one of the BEST people I have come across in my career. A true professional at all times, Tim had a strong knowledge of technology, a rare dedication to the company he served and most importantly, he was a super people person who was easy to talk to. On the home front, I always thought of Tim as a consummate family man who worked hard to balance work and home. Tim and Tina have a formidable network of friends - many of whom I have met at their legendary Christmas parties! I was always impressed by how many people the Harr’s worked with who also called them friends. Tim will be missed and our family’s thoughts and prayers go out to the Harr family.

“ I also worked with Tim as a client in a former role at Gartner. Of all the people I spoke with regularly, Tim stands out so clearly as one of the nicest and most genuine I’ve ever had the privilege to know. It’s been years, but I can still recall his soft spoken voice and how kind he was, no matter how busy or hectic things were around him. My sincere condolences to Tim’s family and all who loved him. It was a true pleasure to know him.

“ I was privileged to work with Tim as a client during my tenure with Gartner. I looked forward to each and every call and interaction as he was such a delightful person with whom I could collaborate. A former colleague reached out to me today to let me know of his passing and I am so deeply sorry. I believe we touch one another's lives in unforeseen ways. It is not the quantity of our interaction but rather the quality, which makes lasting impact. Tim touched my life and I send my most sincere condolences to all who love him.

“ I knew Tim in the late 70's . I remember him being funny and smart with a passion for life.
One of the greatest smiles on earth. My heart breaks for his close friends and family. I know they will miss him so very much. I wish you all comfort in his memories. I know he'll still be near you when you need him most.

“ A wonderful person who always had a smile and a willingness to help his colleagues. No matter what he seemed to face, he always faced it with a calm demeanor. I worked with a Tim for 30 years and can't remember a time where I ever saw him lose his cool. My heart and prayers go out to Tina and his family. He will be truly missed by his Nordson friends and colleagues. The world has lost a wonderful soul as Heaven gained an Angel. Rest In Peace, with no more pain. With deepest sympathy,

“ I lost a loyal friend, an exemplary co-worker and a trusted confidant. Tim's work ethic was legendary. After working through the night with counterparts in Japan, China, Europe, Tim would go home for a change of clothes, workout and shower at the gym and would be the first at work with his cup of Starbucks coffee. Will miss that quick wave and disarming smile. I would tease Tim about getting a new pencil because he would always be taking meticulous notes with a pencil stub(although he did catchup with modern technology by getting a mechanical pencil).

I will treasure his last email to me on my birthday.

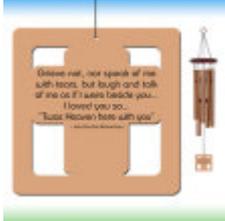

Condolences and prayers to Tina and the extended Harr family.

“ First of all I want to express my sincere condolences to the family. I know you're all hurting. We lost a great man and a great friend and my heart breaks for all of you. I thought I might share a "Tim" story, but there are so many to choose from in our 34 year friendship, it is very difficult. But, this is the one that comes to mind..... our last conversation.

My last call with Tim was about a month before he moved on. I called him, he sounded great and I was optimistic about him being with us for a while. We reminisced for quite some time but couldn't cover it all, there was a lot to cover from our years of friendship and we laughed a lot! He said, and I agreed, that "we always had fun, work, work under stress or play, we had fun." He told me that the doctors had exhausted all efforts and he wouldn't be with us much longer. I told him "if you move on before we talk again, save me a cold beer on the other side." We both laughed... and, we both wept. He said "you always could make me laugh, we'll have a 'session' on the other side" and we both laughed and wept some more. Tim came up with the term "session" to describe when we got together for beers and wings, talked about work and life and solved the world's problems. We had some good times and made memories neither of us will ever forget. I am so grateful that we had that last conversation, and said our goodbyes. But, I sure wish we could have chatted again. I'll miss you dearly my old friend, see you on the other side. And, keep 'em cold for me!

“ Nancy and I extend our deepest symphony to the Harr Family. He was a great guy who never had a bad thing to say about anyone.

The fun times we had sharing a common office wall and shouting back and forth will never be forgotten.

Tina you are loving person who worked hard to help Tim through the challenging past few years. He is at rest and may your sorrow be comforted by knowing how many friends Tim had in life.

“ I remember seeing him behind those piles of papers during one of my visits up north. I told him I finally found someone with more piles than me! He just laughed....

Frank Jennings - May 22 at 03:25 PM

“ But, if you asked him for any specific document, he could just reach into any one of those piles and pull it right out. It looked chaotic, but he knew exactly where everything was.

Andreas - May 26 at 10:36 AM

“ Yes he did! In fact, I asked him for one and he went right to it! It was amazing. We both laughed then.
